Explore your crafty side - be a Yarn Baby!

Knitting is fun, easy, and relaxing. Join Malik for this step-by-step workshop that'll teach you to knit a cozy wrap. Learn the long-tail cast on, the knit stitch, how to drop stitches, and bind off. Gorgeous yarn, needles, and other supplies will be provided. Do your homework and you'll end the class with a finished wrap! This workshop is appropriate for many levels: whether you're brand new or an advanced beginner, join other Yarn Babies for a fun Sunday afternoon activity. Pre-registration is required and space is limited.

Malik Turley:

Malik Turley was bitten by the knitting bug in 2003 and has had at least 3 projects going ever since! In her yarn baby days she outfitted her husband and 3 children in scarves and hats. Now she works on lace knitting and other projects with more involved shapes, as well as designing her own patterns. Teaching others how to knit has always been a favorite part of the craft for her, and she's thrilled to help others become yarn babies!
